

KIDS AND MONEY

Elizabeth and John Batton

KEY IDEAS

More is caught than taught

Teaching good financial habits is up to you; they won't learn it elsewhere

Teaching behavior is more effective than just imparting knowledge

CORE BIBLICAL PRINCIPALS

Principle #1 - Everything belongs to God; we are called to take care of it

Principle #2: God is a giver and wants us to be like him, for our own good

Principle #3- Money is neither good nor bad – but it is a tool and a test

Principle #4- Work is a gift, a command, and is rewarded

PRACTICAL IDEAS FOR YOUR FAMILY

Work

Giving

Saving

Spending

Debt

Frugality

RECOMMENDED RESOURCES

Smart Money Smart Kids, Dave Ramsey

How the Economic Machine Works about debt(www.economicprinciples.org)

Bureau of Labor Statistics for pay rates by job (www.bls.gov/bls/blswage.htm)