FALL 2019 SERIES

BACKGROUND: Revelation 2:1-7

Ephesus boasted a population of at least a quarter million. Its geographic location was ideal, nestled between two mountains close to the Aegean Sea. It was adorned with public and commercial buildings, fountains, gymnasiums, bath houses, stadiums, theaters, and especially temples. It was a commercial powerhouse and transportation hub. If all roads led to Rome, Ephesus was a major intersection on the way. Its crown jewel was the Temple of Artemis, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world, measuring 420 by 240 feet, with a roof 60 feet high supported by 117 imposing columns.

But the church's spiritual fervor doesn't match the grandeur of their city. Ephesus was a hotbed of false teaching even in the early days following Paul's founding of the church. Paul warned about this problem while on his way to Jerusalem during his third missionary journey (Acts 20:29-31). He was right: Five years or so later, when Paul writes to Timothy ministering in Ephesus, a major concern is false teachers (1 Tim 1:3-11, 4:1-9, 6:3-10). Although Jesus commends the church for examining and rejecting false teachers, He points to a cancer in their midst: An unloving attitude permeates the Ephesian church, perhaps as an outgrowth of their zeal to defend truth. Their lack of love is inconsistent with Christianity and is deadly. After all, John says, "Whoever does not love abides in death" (1 Jn 3:14). Jesus, however, knows the solution: Love must first be directed to Him because He is the source of all love. The remedy is immediate repentance. For those who choose to repent, Jesus offers glorious promise—permission to enter paradise.

WEEK 2 VIDEO View it together as a group, and be sure to take notes.

DISCUSSION Read aloud Revelation 2:1-7.

1. Think back to when you first came to know Christ. What kinds of things did you take joy in doing to show your love to Him? What do you miss about those days?
2. Over time, in what ways have you allowed Jesus, The Great I Am, to become "The Great To Do," especially in light of our recent pulpit series in the book of Galatians? How has this sermon given you a path forward to experiencing your original devotion to Him?
3. What from the video or Continuing the Conversation devotionals was notable or helpful?
4. Where did the Ephesian church take a turn away from the love of Jesus? What happens to our influence in the world if we value the law, or performance, over love? How do you see this happening to believers today?
5. In what ways is salvation a Person rather than a concept? How does that knowledge affect your daily life?
6. Share with group members the ways you want to go about returning to your first love of Jesus in the coming days and weeks.

CLOSE your group time in prayer.
