Christ's fulfillment

Gal 4:4-5; Heb 2:16-17

1 Cor 6:20; 1 Pet 1:18-19

Jn 10:15-18; 1 Jn 3:16

1. Read Ruth 3. In this chapter we see the steps God's people (represented by Ruth) take to enter into a deeper relationship with the Lord (represented by Boaz). List how the steps Ruth takes in preparing to meet Boaz illustrate the way we should approach God.

2. Why can't we come into God's presence "clothed" in our own attempts at righteousness? What do we need instead? (See 2 Cor 5:21; Rom 4:5, 5:17; Phil 3:9; Heb 11:7; Titus 3:5.)

3. In what ways do Boaz' actions toward Ruth illustrate how God treats us when we approach Him?

4. What causes you to be impatient as you wait for God to work out His best for you, and what does impatience tempt you to do instead of wait?

5. Read the Scriptures listed below and note the ways Jesus is always working on your behalf.

Philippians 1:6

Philippians 2:12-13

Hebrews 8

Hebrews 13:20-21

6. Read Psalm 37:5 and 46:10. The Hebrew word translated be still means take your hands off, relax. One evidence of your trust in God is your willingness to sit still and let Him have His way. How can you put yourself at the feet of the Lord this week and trust Him to work?
