Week Seven: “Changing Priorities. Creating Margin.”

Ken Miller

For we are God’s masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago. – Ephesians 2:10 (NLT)

I. The Problem

“As modern people we are all on a search for significance. We desire to make a difference. We long to leave a legacy. We yearn, as Ralph Waldo Emerson put it, ‘to leave the world a bit better.’ Our passion is to know that we are fulfilling the purpose for which we are here on earth. All other standards of success – wealth, power, position, knowledge, friendships – grow tinny and hollow if we do not satisfy this deeper longing.”

– Os Guinness, The Call

- It is that we lack _____

"Margin is the amount of time allowed beyond what is needed. It is something held in reserve for contingencies or unanticipated situations. Margin is the gap between rest and exhaustion, the space between breathing freely and suffocating. It is the leeway we once had between ourselves and our limits." – Dr. Richard Swenson, Margin

"Margin is about intentionally uncluttering our lives ... if you have no margin, then you will have nothing to give away. Margin allows us to do life at a pace that lets us listen to God's calling and direction." – Lloyd Reeb, From Success to Significance

- You'll never hear from Him is you never listen to Him
- You won't ever do His good works if you fill every second with your own
- Putting your priorities over God's will never bring true satisfaction
