Week Eight: “Changing Priorities. Creating Margin. – Part II”

Ken Miller

For we are God’s masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things he planned for us long ago. – Ephesians 2:10 (NLT)

- We are operating on _____

Overload comes when we have too much activity in our lives, too much change, too many choices, too much work, too much debt, too much media exposure. We’re stressed by information overload. We’re stressed by accessibility overload -- we’re connected all the time. – Rick Warren

I. We don’t have enough left over for God

- We want to do the right thing, but we can’t
- It isn’t that we lack time, talent, energy, or passion
- It is that we lack _____

“Margin is the amount of time allowed beyond what is needed. It is something held in reserve for contingencies or unanticipated situations. Margin is the gap between rest and exhaustion, the space between breathing freely and suffocating. It is the leeway we once had between ourselves and our limits.” – Dr. Richard Swenson, Margin
