GOD'S EMERGING KINDNESS

RUTH 2

How do God's people live in (these) difficult days?

God's people are to _____ God as His hesed people.

Boaz extended exceptional kindness to Ruth.

Ruth extended exceptional kindness to Naomi.

Hesed people can trust God's _____ hesed-hand _____ life.

A Divine Place (2:3)

A Divine Time (2:4, 5, 9)

A Divine Plan (2:2; 2:17-18)

A Divine Encounter (2:1; 2:20-23)

_____ in God's hesed-hand guiding life as you busy yourself with kindness toward others.

1. Watch for His hand.
2. Filter what you see.

3. Trust in His purposes.
4. Praise Him!

1. Read Ruth chapter 2. Describe how the mood here differs from chapter 1.

2. Name all the ways God was kind to Naomi and Ruth (and to Boaz as well) in this chapter.

3. Did God change between chapters 1 and 2 (Num 23:19; Heb 13:8)? What brought about the shift that took place in Naomi, and how did she respond?

4. Just as Naomi learned to recognize God's providential activity in her life and to have hope only in Him, so must we. How have you seen God orchestrate places, times, plans or encounters to show His guidance in your life, and how has acknowledging them nurtured your faith?

5. What's the connection between our walk with God and His hesed kindness toward us? What does it look like to be walking with God?

6. Read Romans 2:1-4. We can be confident in God's involvement in the details of our lives and that His kindness—His hesed—guides the lives of those who walk with Him. How do you need to turn and walk with God today so He can pour out even more kindnesses on you?

Watch for His hand.

Filter what you see.

Trust in His purposes.

Praise Him!

“Should not we who believe in Jesus Christ rejoice in hope? When you consider who He is, what He has done for us, and what He says to us in His Word, there is no reason for us to feel hopeless. Jesus Christ is the Son of God. He has died for us, and now He intercedes for us in heaven. In His Word, He has given us ‘exceeding great and precious promises’ (2 Pet 1:4 KJV) that can never fail. No matter how you may feel today, no matter how difficult your circumstances may be, you can rejoice in hope if you will focus your faith on Jesus Christ. ... For the Christian believer, hope is not a shallow ‘hope-so feeling’ generated by optimistic fantasies. Hope is an inner sense of joyful assurance and confidence as we trust God’s promises and face the future with His help. This hope is God’s gift to His children through the Holy Spirit, who reminds us of God’s promises found in His Word (Rom 15:13).”
